

Foster Success Education Services is committed to ensuring that teens and young adults who have experienced foster care achieve educational success. That can mean many different things – from earning a four-year degree to completing a training program that teaches skills for a successful career.

► MARYLAND EDUCATION AND TRAINING VOUCHER PROGRAM

The Maryland Education and Training Voucher (ETV) Program is a federally-funded, state-administered program that provides financial, academic, and human support for young adults who've left the foster care system and are enrolled in qualified colleges, universities, or vocational education programs.
